I would like to acknowledge the members of the Spiritual Crisis Network, people I have encountered in my work and all other experiencers who have inspired this enterprise; but above all, Chris Clarke, who has been my invaluable collaborator in all the detailed and technical tasks involved in the editing – it should really read ‘edited by Clarke and Clarke’.
Notes on Editor and Contributors

Isabel Clarke, MA, BA, C Clin Psychol  Isabel Clarke is a Consultant Clinical Psychologist, currently Psychological Therapies Lead in an NHS Acute Inpatient Unit (Woodhaven, New Forest). She has published, organised conferences etc. on Psychosis and Spirituality. She studied history at Cambridge, is a lifelong practicing Anglican, and founder member of the Spiritual Crisis Network. Her general interest book, ‘Madness, Mystery and the Survival of God’ was published by O Books in 2008. For further details, see: www.isabelclarke.org.

Peter Fenwick, FRCPsych, DPM, MB BChir  Dr Peter Fenwick is an Emeritus Neuropsychiatrist of the Maudsley Hospital and an Honorary Senior Lecturer, Kings College Institute of Psychiatry and the Neurosychiatry Department, Southampton University. He has studied transcendent states of consciousness and brain mechanisms underpinning consciousness. With his wife, he has written a book on NDEs, “The Truth in the Light” and last year “The Art of Dying” describing transcendent phenomena occurring as we die.

Brian Les Lancaster, PhD  Les Lancaster is Professor of Transpersonal Psychology at Liverpool John Moores University, Honorary Research Fellow in the Centre for Jewish Studies at Manchester University, and part of the Adjunct Research Faculty at the Institute of Transpersonal Psychology, California. Les’s published works include Mind Brain and Human Potential, winner of a Science and Medical Network Best Book Award, Approaches to Consciousness: the Marriage of Science and Mysticism (Palgrave-Macmillan, 2004), and The Essence of Kabbalah (Arcturus, 2005).

Natalie Tobert, PhD  Dr Natalie Tobert, medical anthropologist and Course Director of Medicine Beyond Materialism, a programme which invites debate
