Grendon and the Emergence of Forensic Therapeutic Communities
Grendon and the Emergence of Forensic Therapeutic Communities

Developments in Research and Practice

Edited by Richard Shuker and Elizabeth Sullivan
Contents

About the Editors ix
Contributing Authors xi
Foreword xix
Acknowledgements xxv

Part I: Developments in Therapeutic Communities 1

Introduction 3
Peter Bennett

1. Introducing Forensic Democratic Therapeutic Communities 7
Alisa Stevens

2. Dovegate Therapeutic Community: Bid, Birth, Growth and Survival 25
Eric Cullen and Alan Miller

3. The Van der Hoeven Clinic: a Flexible and Innovative Forensic Psychiatric Hospital Based on Therapeutic Community Principles 45
Judith de Boer-van Schaik and Frans Derks

4. A Therapeutic Distinction with a Difference: Comparing American Concept-Based Therapeutic Communities and British Democratic Therapeutic Community Treatment for Prison Inmates 61
Douglas S. Lipton
Contents

5. Towards a Social Analytical Therapy
   John Shine

Part II: Practice

6. Putting Principles into Practice: The Therapeutic Community Regime at HMP Grendon and its Relationship with the ‘Good Lives’ Model
   Michael Brookes

7. Personality Disorder: Using Therapeutic Communities as an Integrative Approach to Address Risk
   Richard Shuker

8. Psychodrama as Part of Core Therapy at HMP Grendon
   Jinnie Jefferies

9. Self and Social Function: Art Therapy and Readiness for Treatment in a Therapeutic Community Prison
   Bill Wylie

10. Undertaking Therapy at HMP Grendon with Men Who Have Committed Sexual Offences
    Geraldine Akerman

Part III: Research and Outcomes

11. Reflections on Grendon: Interviews with Men Who Are About to Leave
    Elizabeth Sullivan

12. ‘This can’t be real’: Continuity at HMP Grendon
    Lorna A. Rhodes

13. The Experience of Officers in a Therapeutic Prison: an Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis
    James McManus

14. Emotional Influence and Empathy in Prison-Based Therapeutic Communities
    Karen Niven, David Holman and Peter Totterdell

15. The Quality of Life of Prisoners and Staff at HMP Grendon
    Guy Shefer

16. Suicide and Self-injurious Behaviours at HMP Grendon
    Adrienne Rivlin
17. Changes in Prison Offending Among Residents of a Prison-Based Therapeutic Community 281
   Margaret Newton

18. Changes in Interpersonal Relating Following Therapeutic Community Treatment at HMP Grendon 293
   Richard Shuker and Michelle Newberry

19. The Experiences of Black and Minority Ethnic (BME) Prisoners in a Therapeutic Community Prison 305
   Michelle Newberry

20. Research in Prison 317
   Martin J. Fisher, Carol Ireland and Elizabeth Sullivan

Index 327
Richard Shuker is a Chartered Forensic Psychologist and Head of Psychology and Research at HMP Grendon. He has managed cognitive behavioural programmes within adult and young offender prisons and is lead clinician on the assessment unit at Grendon. His special interest is in needs assessment and treatment of high-risk offenders. He is series editor for the book series Issues in Forensic Psychology and has publications in the areas of therapeutic communities, risk assessment, and treatment readiness and outcome.

Email address: richard.shuker@hmps.gsi.gov.uk

Elizabeth Sullivan gained her first degree in psychology with the Open University and her PhD in social psychology from Royal Holloway, University of London. Her doctoral thesis was on coping with threatened identities. Elizabeth is a Fellow of the Higher Education Academy (FHEA) and a Chartered Scientist (CSci). She was Senior Research Officer at HMP Grendon between 2004 and 2007, during which time she developed a research strategy for Grendon expanding the qualitative research agenda. Her work included guest editorships with Richard Shuker of Issues in Forensic Practice and the Prison Service Journal, and winning BPS funding for organising a series of seminars on Readiness for Treatment. Elizabeth worked closely with prisoners on research-related activities resulting in conference presentations and publications. Prior to her time at Grendon, Elizabeth was Senior Research Fellow & Senior Lecturer in Social Work at De Montfort University. Currently Elizabeth is Senior Lecturer in Social Work at the University of Bedfordshire and also serves as a non-executive director on the board of Bedfordshire and Luton NHS Partnership Mental Health Trust.

Email address: elizabeth.sullivan@beds.ac.uk
Geraldine Akerman is a senior forensic psychologist working at HMP Grendon. She is a Chartered Forensic Psychologist, Chartered Scientist and Associate Fellow of the British Psychological Society. In addition Geraldine is an associate member of the divisions of Counselling Psychology, and Positive and Coaching Psychology and she has been employed by the Prison Service since January 1999. She has worked with perpetrators of sexual offences since November 1999 and is trained to work with life-sentenced prisoners. Geraldine has published papers relating to developing a behaviour checklist, measuring community mindedness in a therapeutic community, developing empathy with men who have committed offences via the internet, applying the ‘Good Lives’ model to men who have committed sexual offences, and devising a fantasy modification programme to run in a therapeutic community. Geraldine is currently Co-Editor of Forensic Update and is studying for a PhD at Birmingham University in the area of devising a measure of sexual interest in male offenders.

Email address: Geraldine.akerman01@hmps.gsi.gov.uk

Peter Bennett studied South Asian history and social anthropology at the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London. He went on to carry out two years’ fieldwork in central India for his PhD, publishing a book and numerous articles on caste and sect. He joined the Prison Service as an officer at Birmingham in 1983, followed by positions as governor grade at Everthorpe, Hull, Moorland and Headquarters. He has been Governor in charge at Nottingham and Wellingborough and latterly at Grendon Therapeutic Community Prison and Springhill Open Prison. He has been chair of the Perrie Lectures Committee and is a director of the Koestler Trust and a director of the Newbridge Foundation.

Email address: Peter.bennett02@hmps.gsi.gov.uk

Michael Brookes is currently Director of Therapeutic Communities at HMP Grendon and Visiting Professor to Birmingham City University. He is a Consultant Chartered Forensic Psychologist. Michael started working in secure settings as a group worker at Glenthorne Youth Treatment Centre in Birmingham before joining the Prison Service in 1985 at HMP Gartree. From this base he also provided a psychological service to HMPs Ashwell, Leicester and Stocken. In 1991 Michael transferred to the East Midlands area where he was involved in creating the first area psychology team. He also managed directly the psychology teams at HMPs Lincoln and Lindholme. Upon transferring to Headquarters in 1997 Michael became Head of the Psychology Liaison Unit and also of the HR Planning and HR Strategy teams. In his current appointment Michael has responsibility for the delivery of therapy within HMP Grendon’s unique custodial therapeutic community environment where psychological treatment is the central and pivotal regime activity.

Email address: michael.brookes02@hmps.gsi.gov.uk

David J. Cooke is a Consultant Forensic Clinical Psychologist and former head of the Forensic Clinical Psychology service in Glasgow. He is the Professor of Forensic Clinical Psychology at Glasgow Caledonian University and a Visiting Professor in the Faculty of Psychology at the University of Bergen in Norway. He was privileged to be the psychologist for the Barlinnie Special Unit for ten years. He undertakes research on psychopathic disorder and violence and is interested in the clinical application of this research to risk assessment. He served on the Maclean Committee on serious violent and sexual offenders. He is the author of over 150 scientific books, monographs, chapters and research papers. He has provided workshops on violence risk assessment and the assessment of psychopathy in the UK, Europe, North America, New Zealand, Iran and the Caribbean. He is a Fellow of the British Psychological Society and the Royal Society of Edinburgh: he was awarded the Senior Award for Outstanding Lifetime Contribution to Forensic Psychology from the Division of Forensic Psychology of the British Psychological Society in 2006. He is President of the European Association of Psychology and Law.

Email address: djcooke@rgardens.vianw.co.uk

Eric Cullen is a retired Consultant Forensic Psychologist. Previously he was Head of Psychology at Grendon Underwood, Lead Consultant for Dovegate Therapeutic Community in Staffordshire and honorary Senior Research Fellow at the University of Birmingham. Eric is also an Associate Fellow of the British Psychology Society and was a magistrate. Currently, he is a member of the Correctional Services Accreditation Panel (CSAP) for the Ministry of Justice. Eric is author or editor of three books, six chapters and numerous articles, especially on democratic therapeutic communities for offenders.

Email address: erriccullen@tiscali.co.uk

Judith de Boer-van Schaik obtained a degree in sociology and methods of social research at the University of Leiden (The Netherlands). She had several functions at the Ministries of Health and Justice and in 1995 she was appointed Head of the Department for Forensic Psychiatry (TBS hospitals) of the Ministry of Justice, then in 2001 appointed Staff Director of the Van der Hoeven Clinic in Utrecht. In 2004 she was detached as a lecturer at the DSPD unit in Broadmoor and in 2007 was project manager for the community-based DSPD project in Liverpool.

Email address: jud.boer@compaqnet.nl

Frans Derks obtained a degree in psychology of religion at the Radboud University in Nijmegen (The Netherlands) and has worked since 1990 as a research psychologist and policy advisor at the Van der Hoeven Clinic in Utrecht.

Email address: fch.derks@hoevenkliniek.nl

Martin J. Fisher is a Chartered Psychologist, an Associate Fellow of the British Psychology Society, a Chartered Scientist and a Registered Forensic Psychologist. He currently works as Consultant Forensic Psychologist in the Public Sector Bids Unit of NOMS. In addition he is involved in the broader development of Psychological Services within the NOMS organisation. He is a member of GAP and GRAG and a member of the NRC review team for prison-based research applications. Having spent 15 years working in Prison Service establishments and a further six years working as an Area Psychologist for the Prison Service in the South East of England, Martin has a broad range of experience of consultancy, research and clinically orientated work in custodial, community and health settings. Martin is currently the CPD lead for the Division of Forensic Psychology and leads on responses to Government consultations for the Division. He has published academically in the fields of risk assessment, hostage incident profiling and organisational change. He is an Honorary Forensic Psychologist with Hampshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust, and is a visiting lecturer in Forensic Psychology at Portsmouth University.

Email address: martin.fisher@hmps.gsi.gov.uk